Ample Air Pty Ltd have been advised by 'Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu' of Melbourne that they were appointed as administrators for ECP (Australia) Pty Ltd on 16th July 2008 to urgently asses the financial position of the company.

ECP Australia is the manufacturer of 'Airwell' refrigerated air conditioning products.

Therefor until we are advised to the contrary by the administrators Ample Air is not able to carry out any manufactures warranty on behalf of Airwell.

Should a client wish to engage our services to rectify a manufacturer's warranty fault, the full cost of such repairs shall be payable to Ample Air by the client requesting the service. It should be noted however at this stage the availability of replacments parts is not clear.
